ONLY A COUPLE OF HOURS TO EXPLORE?

- 1. Ride the free trolley for its entire loop (approx 40 min). You will experience the unique character of each District within the 782 acre Downtown Scottsdale area. You'll see the Arts Districts of Main Street and Marshall Way, 5th Avenue unique boutique shops, Fashion Square Mall and Old Town. You may hop on and off at any stop. Runs 11AM-9PM and comes every 10 minutes.
- 2. Enjoy the Historic Walking Tour which begins at the Historical Society Museum. You'll visit the Old Adobe Mission (1/2 block away), original bank, original drug store site, original post office, and others.
- 3. Stroll and delight in the Civic Center fountains, public art, flowers, and public buildings with lobby displays and interior art galleries. Take the brick walkway eastward into the Civic Center (pass the running yearling statue and Little Red Schoolhouse). When the plaza widens you will stroll to the right pass the AZ 88 restaurant to the Performing Arts building for your first adventure. Then stroll eastward to the Civic Center Library (the children's library is a castle with hilarious stuffed animals peering out the turrets). Walk inside the Kiva (City Hall) north of the library. Look up and you'll see the incredibly beautiful stained glass skylights. Did you see our pair of swans in the pond as you looked over the bridge? Local students purchased them for the city.
- 4. The Museum of Broadcasting is above the Santa Fe Jewelry store on 5th Avenue at Scottsdale Rd (ride the trolley from Old Town). See old radio scripts, old radios, pictures of radio stars and marvel at the collection of memorabilia from those AUDIO DAYS.
- 5. Still have time? Why not shop? Old Town has shops with Southwestern salsas, peppers, cactus candy, kitchen towels and mats. Mexican Imports has small suitcase items to take to the grandkids, the lady taking care of your dog or cat, and items such as sombreros and ponchos. On 5th Avenue you will find a humidor for testing the cigar you just purchased, lace shops, African items, international teas, denim dresses and unique jackets, and many other unique shopping experiences.

We love Scottsdale and we want your day to be special so we will see you back again soon!

This is about 3 hrs of browsing. If you can stay longer, please sample the delicious foods at any of our 100 plus eateries. You'll find the Dining Guide on our information cart, categorized by the type of food with the locations color-coded to the map in the booklet. The trolley route is on the backside to help you.
